Family Friendly Masonry

As we approach Grand Lodge, I can't believe how fast the year has come and gone. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the outgoing Worshipful Masters for their leadership this past year. The amount of cooperation between the three Lodges has been exemplary and I can only hope that this upcoming year will be no exception.

Going forward, I personally, would like to see more outings/events that all of the Masonic bodies can attend. I feel that what is sorely lacking in the Order is the ability to bring, not only the Masonic family, but also the immediate families, together. To this end there are several events that are being planned for the upcoming year which will, hopefully, allow the spouses, children, and grandchildren the opportunity to share in the fellowship that we all share.

This might even be an opportunity...with family comes friends. Do you have a neighbor or friend that is hesitant on joining, or maybe just doesn't know about Freemasonry, or the appendant bodies? Bring them to the outing.

These family (and friends) outings will also put us in the public eye and may spark the interest in some would be candidate to ask the question that is the equivalent of the sharp raps on the door. Public exposure is key to us, the current stewards of our respective bodies, being able to bolster our ranks. I would appreciate any ideas that you all might have on what would make a good family friendly outing.

I think I can reasonably speak for the other officers when I say that I am excited to see what a new year in Masonry brings us. I can only hope that we are able to make it a successful year and have a little fun at the same time!

THIS MONTH'S EDUCATION TOPIC

Your Masonic Education

by August 2016 Trestleboard article by Wor. Greg Cherry, Master of Santa Monica Palisades (CA) Lodge No. 307

Civility In and Out of the Lodge

"Practice, out of the lodge, those great moral duties which are inculcated in it."

I struggled with an appropriate Trestleboard post this month, but with all of the recent headlines in July dominated by shootings, mass killings, acts of war, and political debates, I would feel remiss not to address our current state of affairs.

Most Worshipful Russ Charvonia used his platform as the Grand Master last year to address civility, or the lack thereof, in our society. He wrote that "When we are uncivil to one another, we silence the other person; we take his or her voice away."

At this point, it often feels like the incivility, the dangers, and the brokenness of this world have reached such a fever pitch that there is no turning back. Earlier this month, Brother Brent Thompson was a police Officer killed by a sniper in a violent act in Dallas. He was a Master Mason of Corsicana Lodge No. 174 in Texas, and the father of 6 children. The week prior, 33-year old Philandeo Castile was shot dead by Police Officers during a routine traffic stop. And while he was not a Mason, his Uncle Clarence is a District Deputy Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Minnesota, who made an impassioned Masonic plea during a CNN interview, which can be found on Facebook.

In the face of so much violence and vitriol, I often feel powerless to do anything. I am not able to prevent a single, disturbed, young individual from bringing a semi-automatic into a nightclub or driving an armored truck through a crowded street celebration in France. There is already too much anger and hatred towards a system that is perceived as corrupt, imbalanced, and beyond repair. It is hard to know where to begin.

But as a Freemason, I already have the tools and resources to help make the world a better place. As a leader of this lodge, it is my duty to shine a light on the darker places of society with my moral and social virtues. Through the tenets of brotherly love, relief, and truth, I can move past prejudices and injustice, and treat others with respect and compassion. The language and the values of Freemasonry were vital to the development of democracy in America. This is a country that was absolutely founded on Masonic principles. It is possible to return to those principles again. It will take the example and leadership of ever Mason out there.

I can't stop every killing. I can't fix our political system. I can't change the world in one lifetime. But I can improve myself. And I can improve those around me. And in doing so, I choose to be a part of the solution, rather than the problem. Of all the threats to our society, one of the most insidious is apathy, or inaction. We all have a part to play. And as Freemasons, it is our duty to pass along those great moral duties which are inculcated within the lodge.

It is time that we look to the trowel – the tool we all receive as Master Masons – to remind us of our role in spreading the cement of brotherly love, which forms the foundation of a stronger society, and unites us on the fraternal chain. FAST FACTS

Masonic symbols are usually regarded as existing because of the fraternity's secrecy. However, in reality, Freemasonry started being illustrated by symbols because at the very beginning most Freemasons could not read, so the symbols served to remind members of the fraternity's teachings.

News to Know!

Don't Forget to Send Your Stories, Pictures and Events!

Brothers please remember to send anything that you want included in the Trestle Board to your Worshipful Masters whose e-mail addresses can be found on the last page of the newsletter. We have gotten some good feedback on the new Trestle Board and we would like to keep highlighting our Brothers.

Squires and DeMolay will be raising money for the Masonic Services Association July-September.

The Squires and DeMolay will be fundraising for the Masonic Services Association in Sioux Falls during the next three months. Be on the lookout for chances to donate at your Lodge meetings in August and at the Shrine on Wednesday nights in September.

The Squires and DeMolay raised $540 for cancer research this past three months. Which exceeded their goal of $300 and was just short of what they raised last year during the same period.

We Need Brothers to Join Committees!

Hopefully your respective Lodges were able to assign some Brothers to the committees listed on page 7. If you are interested in joining one of those committees, please make sure you reach out to your WM and let him know. Hopefully we will see some of our newest members joining these committees as part of their Masonic journey.

The Knights of St. Andrew are Sponsoring a School Supply Drop-off!

The KSA is working in conjunction with the Banquet here in Sioux Falls to help collect schools supplies for children in need through the Banquet's Project SOS program. All of your monetary or school items will stay local and help local children.

An Influential Brother

Bro. David Sarnoff

Bro. Peale became a Master Mason in Midwood Lodge No. 1062 in Brooklyn in 1926. He was a minister, self help author and speaker. He was a 33rd Degree Scottish Rite member, belonged to Crescent Shrine and was made a Knight on Sight by the York Rite.

Brothers to Keep in Our Thoughts

There have not been any Brothers or family members have been brought to the attention of the Trestle Board this past month.

Friends of the Scottish Rite Night at The Barrel House was a success!

The Scottish Rite was able to raise over $1,000 to help support its causes including the Scottish Rite Clinic here in Sioux Falls.

Thank you to all the Brothers that showed up and enjoyed a meal with their family, friends or Brothers!!

The 6:30 Degree or Knife and Fork Degree

BY ANONYMOUS

The 6:30 Degree

You may have a skillful Master
 Who presides with practiced ease,
 Who arranges clever programs
 That will entertain and please,
 One who calls in witty speakers;
 Who knows his way about;
 But a lavish Junior Warden
 Is the boy who brings them out!

You may have a good degree team
 Where each member knows his part.
 Drilled to function as a unit
 With especial skill and art,
 With the finest of equipment,
 Jewelled crown and sumptuous shroud;
 But a groaning banquet table
 Is the bait that draws the crowd!

Did I say I was different?
 If the truth must be confessed,
 Much as I like work and speeches,
 I'm as hungry as the rest;
 And the ones they put in pudding
 Are my favorite kind of "Plumb";
 When the cry is "Come and get it!"
 Gangway, slowpokes! Here I come.
